UMF CRAIOVA

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we have the great pleasure to invite you to the 10th Medical Genetics Conference with international participation, that will take place at Craiova, in Aula Magna of University of Medicine and Pharmacy of Craiova, between 6th-8th September 2017.

The conference will be preceded by a practical course in molecular genetics addressed to resident doctors and young specialists in Medical Genetics. The course entitled "Molecular techniques used in genetic screening and diagnostic, from nucleotide to the genome" will be held between 3rd – 5th September 2017 in the Human Genomics Laboratory of the Regional Center of Medical Genetics Dolj.

Similar to the previous editions, the participants will have the opportunity to debate on the new scientific developments in human genetics. The Conference addresses to health workers in the fields of Genetics, Pediatrics, Neonatology, Pediatric Neurology, Family Medicine, biologists, but also to other specialists interested in Genetics.

The presence of prestigious national and international lecturers honors and guarantees the success of our Conference.

For updated information on the Conference, please visit the Romanian Medical Genetics Society's web page: www.srgm.ro

We look forward to welcoming you,

Presidents of the Organizing Committee

Prof Dr. Maria Puiu and Conf. Dr. Mihai Ioana
